SCOTT ANSWERS CALL

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—James Scott of the Chicago American pitching staff, was admitted to the reserve officers' training camp at the Presidio. Scott showed up one day behind the time he had been ordered by the war department to report, but camp officers decided, they said, that his "desperate" efforts to arrive from Chicago on time "entitled him to some consideration." His application was made from Wyoming, his home state.

STATE FLAG IS NOT DIMMED BY OTHER REGIMENT COLORS

Governor Campbell returned yesterday morning from Naco where the ceremony of the presentation of the state flag to the First Arizona Infantry took place the afternoon before. Governor Campbell said that the officers of the regiment and all the men entered into the ceremony with great enthusiasm.
The new colors of the regiment, a regulation flag and the regimental flag had just been received from Washington, and the glory of the state flag might have appeared to be dimmed by the colors on either side of it, but still with its vibrant, clashing hues it made a brave showing.
The First regiment expected to be at Linda Vista before this, but its departure from Naco has been postponed on account of the delay in the completion of the camp. The governor spent a short time at Bisbee, which appeared to be quiet.
About eighty per cent of the men usually employed are now working underground in the mines there, and more could be secured. But many of the new miners are inexperienced so that there are as many now employed as can be assimilated. The companies are sticking to their recently announced policy of employing only Americans.
